

BOOKS COME TO Life!

11AM

Ed the Wizard Magic and Fun

➤ To start the day, we have Ed the Wizard at 11AM for the kids. Bring your family and enjoy an end of summer celebration with magic, stories, and prizes for kids of all ages!

12PM

Olivia Melo

Knit for a Bit with a Knit Nut

On the 2nd floor near the open front doors of the library, Olivia Melo will have her knitting on display and encourage yarn enthusiasts to try knitting new things and take risks with their design!

1PM

Bill White

Whittle the Day Away

➤ Bill White will have his wooden birds on display as he takes us through the process, skill, and technique required to create a wood-working project. Watch a master craftsman in action on the 2nd floor near the open doors!

2PM

Ray Rickman

Value of the Book

During this "Antiques Road Show" style presentation, Mr. Rickman will cover what makes a book valuable, what type of book has the highest retail value, and will offer complimentary estimates of the value of up to three of your books.

Don't miss out on this unique experience to have your antique books evaluated for FREE by a professional!

Sign up for our email newsletter at: newbedfordlibrary.org
"Quick Link" #7

SATURDAY
AUG 19
11AM-4PM

The front doors of the New Bedford Downtown Library will be OPEN on August 19th as Books Come to Life!

ALL DAY

Books for Fines

Bring a gently used book to be added to the library collection or book sale and money will be deducted from your fines. $1.00 for a soft cover book and $2.00 for a hardcover book. We cannot accept any books with broken spines, obvious odor, water damage, highlighting or writing inside, missing pages or tears. Donated books cannot pay down fines associated with lost items, only late fees.

For additional information, please visit our events page at newbedfordlibrary.org | Main: 508-991-6275 | Wilks: 508-991-6214 |
Howland-Green: 508-991-6212

Friends of the New Bedford Free Public Library

Join the Friends of the New Bedford Free Public Library by sending a check or money order to:

Friends of the New Bedford Free Public Library
613 Pleasant St.
New Bedford, MA 02740

Autobiography: $15.00
Family Films: $30.00
Folio: $50.00

Facebook: Friends of the New Bedford Free Public Library

Ongoing Exhibit

Happening through September 16th—Al Kaplan's Provincetown. Take a look through the lens of New Bedford native Al Kaplan as he captures the 1960's in the burgeoning community of Provincetown—Downtown Library

Books Come to Life at the New Bedford Downtown Library is in association with 3rd Eye Unlimited. Join us Downtown on August 19th for events happening everywhere! Go to newbedfordlibrary.org and 3rdeyeunlimited.org for more

Upcoming Events

Shakespeare in Buttonwood Park
Romeo and Juliet

September 16th at 3PM*

Join us on September 16th at 3PM for a live production of Romeo and Juliet in Buttonwood Park. Bring your family and a lawn chair and settle in for an amazing performance from local actors portraying a modern interpretation of Romeo and Juliet. This event is brought to you by the New Bedford Free Public Library and the New Bedford Parks and Recreation in collaboration with The Glass Horse Project. This event is free and open to the public.

*Rain Date: September 17th at 3PM

Stay up to date on Library events:

Newbedfordlibrary.org

SATURDAY
AUG 19
11AM-4PM